(2) A notice under this sub-regulation shall state:-

- (a) that the Registrar of Ships is not satisfied that the vessel in question is eligible to be registered; and
- (b) that the ship's registration will accordingly terminate by virtue of sub-regulation (1) at the end of the period referred to in that sub-regulation.

Notification
of changes
ownership

40.-(1) If at any time there occurs, in relation to a registered ship:

- (a) any change affecting the eligibility of the ship to be registered, not being a change which affects the qualification or eligibility of the owner as prescribed by Regulations 5 and 7(2) or the Tanzanian connection of a ship as prescribed in Regulations 5;
- or

*Merchant Shipping (Registration of Ships and Licensing of Vessels)
Regulations*

G. N. No. 198 (contd.)

- (b) in respect of a fishing vessel, any change, not affecting that eligibility, in the percentage of the property in the ship beneficially owned by qualified persons or companies.

The owner of the ship shall, as soon as practicable after the change occurs, notify the Registrar of Ships.

(2) The notification referred to in sub-regulation (1) shall be made in writing, shall be signed by the owner and shall specify the nature of the change and the name and the official number of the ship.

(3) Any person who contravenes sub-regulation (1) shall be guilty of an offence.

41.—(1) Where there is any transfer or transmission of a registered ship or share in a registered ship:

Transfer
or transmission of a

- (a) the person ceasing to own the ship or share, or in the event of his death, his legal personal representative, shall notify the Registrar of Ships and surrender the certificate of registry; and
- (b) the Registrar of Ships shall cancel the certificate of registry and shall freeze the Register pending the application for the registration of the transfer or transmission by the new owner or owners of the ship or share.

(2) Where there is a transfer of a registered ship:

- (a) the new owners shall within 30 days of the transfer make application in accordance with these Regulations for the transfer to be registered;
- (b) if the transfer is of all the shares in the ship, and application is not made within the 30 days, the Registrar of Ships may cancel the registration of the ship and the certificate of registry; and
- (c) if the transfer is of one or some of the shares in the ship, and application is not made within the 30 days, the Registrar of Ships shall serve a notice on the remaining registered owners notifying them that, unless an application to transfer the share or shares in question is made within 30 days of the date of the notice the registration of the ship and the certificate of registry may be cancelled.

*Merchant Shipping (Registration of Ships and Licensing of Vessels)
Regulations*

G. N. No. 198 (contd.)

(3) Where there is a transmission of a registered ship:

(a) the new owners shall promptly make application in accordance with these Regulations for the transmission to be registered;

(b) if the transmission is of all the shares in the ship, and application is not made within a reasonable time, the Registrar of Ships may cancel the registration of the ship and the certificate of registry; and

(c) if the transmission is not made within a reasonable time: the Registrar of Ships shall serve a notice on the remaining registered owners notifying them that, unless an application to register the transmission of the share or shares in question is made within 30 days of the date of the notice the registration of the ship and the certificate of registry may be cancelled.

Change in registered
particulars
of ship

42.-(1) Where there is a change:-

(a) in the registered particulars of a ship other than a change in the tonnage of the ship; or

(b) in the name or address of an owner entered in the Register not being a change of ownership;

application shall be made as soon as practicable to the Registrar of Ships for the change to be recorded in the Register.

(2) Such application shall be in writing and subject to Regulation 97 be accompanied by the certificate of registry and such evidence as to the change as may be required by the Registrar of Ships.

(3) Where there is a change in the tonnage of a ship, it shall be resurveyed or remeasured in accordance with Regulation 20.

(4) Application in a form approved by the Minister shall be made as soon as practicable for the change to be recorded in the Register and be accompanied by the certificate of surveyor measurement and the certificate of registry.

*Merchant Shipping (Registration of Ships and Licensing of Vessels)
Regulations*

G. N. No. 198 (contd.)

(5) On recording the change in the registered particulars the Registrar of Ships shall cancel the existing certificate and issue to the owner a new certificate of registry expiring on the same date as the existing one.

43.—(1) An owner of a registered ship may apply to the Registrar of Ships to change the name of the ship.

Change of name

(2) The application shall be made in a form approved by the Minister and shall, subject to Regulation 97 be accompanied by the certificate of registry.

(3) If it appears to the Registrar of Ships that the name complies with First Schedule he shall issue a marking note to the owner.

44.—(1) An owner of a registered ship may apply to the Registrar of Ships for the ship to change its port of choice to another such port. The application shall be made in a form approved by the Minister and, subject to Regulation 96, be accompanied by its certificate of registry.

Transfer of port of choice

(2) On receipt of such an application in respect of a fishing vessel the Registrar of Ships shall allocate to the vessel port letters and numbers for that port.

(3) If it appears to the Registrar of Ships that the requirements of the First Schedule are complied with he will issue a marking note.

45.—(1) On receipt of the marking note the owner shall cause the ship to be marked with the new name and/or port of choice and, in respect of ships over 50GT and fishing vessels, shall cause the marking to be inspected in accordance with Regulation 24.

Re-marking of ship

(2) The owner or inspector shall, if satisfied that the ship is marked in the manner required by the Third Schedule, complete the marking note and return it to the Registrar of Ships.

46. On receipt of the marking note duly completed the Registrar of Ships shall re-register the ship with its new name and, or port of choice and shall cancel the existing certificate and issue to the owner a new certificate of registry expiring on the same date as the existing one.

Removal from the Register

47.—(1) The Registrar of Ships may, subject to Regulation 87 terminate a ship's registration in the following circumstances:

- (a) on application by the owner;
- (b) if the registered owner has not notified the Registrar of Ships that ownership of the ship has changed;
- (c) on the ship no longer being eligible to be registered;
- (d) on the ship being destroyed which includes, but is not limited to, shipwreck, demolition, fire and sinking;
- (e) if, taking into account any requirements of the Act including any instrument made under it relating to the condition of the ship or its equipment so far as relevant to its safety or to any risk of pollution or to the safety, health and welfare of persons employed or engaged in any capacity on board the ship, he considers that it would be inappropriate for the ship to remain registered;
- (f) when a registered fishing vessel which has been licensed to fish ceases to be so licensed for a continuous period of 6 months or more;
- (g) when a fishing vessel which requires a licence to fish but at the time of registration did not have such a licence and has not acquired such a licence within 6 months of the issue of its certificate of registry;
- (h) when any penalty imposed on the owner of a ship in respect of a contravention of the Act, or of any instrument in force under the Act, has remained unpaid for a period of more than 3 months and no appeal against that penalty is pending;
- (i) when any summons for any such contravention has been duly served on the owner of a ship but the owner has failed to appear at the time and place appointed for the trial of the information or complaint in question and a period of not less than 3 months has elapsed since that time.

*Merchant Shipping (Registration of Ships and Licensing of Vessels)
Regulations*

G. N. No. 198 (contd.)

(2) Where the Registrar of Ships terminates registration under (a) or (c) above, he shall:-

(a) forthwith issue a closure transcript to the owner of the ship; and

(b) notify any mortgagees of the closure of the registration.

(3) On receipt of the closure transcript the owner shall immediately surrender the ship's certificate of registry to the Registrar of Ships for cancellation.

(4) Where the registration of a fishing vessel has been terminated by virtue of sub-regulation (1)(b), then, without prejudice to the operation of any provision of the Act or these Regulations the ship shall not again be registered as a United Republic of Tanzania ship unless:-

(a) the Registrar of Ships consents to the vessel being so registered;
or

(b) the Registrar of Ships is satisfied that the vessel has been disposed of by its former registered owner by means of a transaction at arm's length and that no person who for the time being is a relevant owner of the vessel was a relevant owner of it at the time registration was terminated.

(5) For the purposes of sub-regulation (4) a person is a relevant owner of a vessel at any time if at that time:

(a) the legal title to the vessel or any share in it is vested in that person;

(b) the vessel or any share in it is beneficially owned by that person;

(c) any share in a body corporate falling within (a) or (b) above are legally or beneficially owned by that person, whether vested in, or as the case may be owned by, that person alone or together with any other person or persons.

Form of mortgage

48. The following types of mortgages shall be in a form approved by the Registrar of ships and shall bear appropriate attestation:-

- (a) a mortgage produced for registration under the Six Schedule; and
- (b) a transfer of a registered mortgage; and
- (c) a discharge of a registered mortgage.

Registration of mortgage

49. Where a mortgage executed in accordance with Regulation 48 is produced to the Registrar of Ships for registration, he shall:-

- (a) register the mortgage; and
- (b) endorse on it the date and time it was registered.

Notices by intending mortgages: priority notices

50.—(1) Where any person who is an intending mortgagee under a proposed mortgage of:-

- (a) a registered ship, or
- (b) a share in a registered ship, notifies the Registrar of Ships of the interest which it is intended that he should have under the proposed mortgage, the Registrar of Ships shall record that interest.

(2) For the purpose of sub-regulation the notice to the Registrar of Ships shall be in a form approved by the Minister and shall contain the name and official number of the ship, the name, address and signature of the intending mortgagor, the number of shares to be mortgaged, and the name and address of the intending mortgagee.

(3) Where any person who is an intending mortgagee under a proposed mortgage of:-

- (a) a ship which is not for the time being registered; or

(b) a share in any such ship;

notifies the Registrar of Ships in writing of the interest which it is intended that he should have under the proposed mortgage, the Registrar of Ships:-

(i) shall record that interest in the Register; and

(ii) if the ship is subsequently registered, shall register the ship subject to that interest or, if the mortgage has by then been executed in accordance with Regulation 48 and produced to the Registrar of Ships, subject to that mortgage.

(4) For the purposes of sub-regulation (3) the notice shall be in a form approved by the Minister and contain the following information:

(a) the present name of the ship;

(b) the intended name of the ship;

(c) the approximate length of the ship;

(d) where the ship is registered outside the United Republic of Tanzania, a copy of its certificate of registry or other document evidencing its registration and giving its port of registration;

(e) where the ship is a new ship, the builder's certificate or if that is not available, the name and address of the builder and the ship's yard number;

Regulations*

G. N. No. 198 (contd.)

(h) declaration of any mortgage in force.

(5) In a case where:-

(a) paragraph 8 of the Sixth Schedule operates to determine the priority between two or more mortgages; and

(b) any of those mortgagee gave notification under sub-regulation (1) or (3) above with respect to his mortgage;

paragraph 8 of the said Schedule shall have effect in relation to that mortgage as if it had been registered at the time when the relevant entry was made in the Register under the said sub-regulations (1) or (3).

(6) Any notification given by a person under sub-regulations (1) or (3) (and anything done as a result of it) shall cease to have effect:

(a) if the notification is withdrawn; or

(b) at the end of the period of 30 days beginning with the date of the notification, unless the notification is renewed in accordance with sub-regulation (7).

(7) The person by whom any such notification is given may renew or further renew the notification on each occasion for a period of 30 days, by notice in writing given to the Registrar of Ships:-

(a) before the end of the period mentioned in sub-regulation (6)(b);
or

(b) before the end of a period of renewal; as the case may be.

(8) Any notice given under this Regulation shall be in a form approved by the Minister.

GN. No. 198 (contd.)

(2) Such evidence may include the production of the vessel for inspection at a place and under such conditions as the Registrar of Ships requires; and, if the necessary evidence is not provided within one month of being so required, he may terminate the licence of the vessel.

Termination of licence

86.-(1) In the event of:

- (a) a vessel ceasing to be a vessel to which this Part applies; or
- (b) a change in the details recorded on the licence for the vessel the licensing for the vessel shall terminate.

(2) Where the licence of a vessel is terminated, the certificate of licence shall cease to have effect and shall, within one month, be surrendered to the Registrar of Ships by the person registered prior to the termination as the owner of the vessel or, if he has died, by his legal personal representative.

PART XI
MISCELLANEOUS

Service of notices

87.-(1) Where it appears to the Registrar of Ships that Regulations 47(b), (c), (e), (f), (g), (h) (i) or 74(1)(b), (d) or (e) apply, he may serve notice on the owner or managing owner, or on any charterer, manager or operator of the ship requiring him to produce, within thirty days, evidence, sufficient to satisfy him that the ship is eligible to remain on the Register.

(2) If at the expiry of that period of thirty days the Registrar of Ships is not so satisfied, he may:

- (a) extend the notice and ask for further information or evidence; or
- (b) serve a final notice which closes the ship's registration, such closure to take effect seven days after the service of that notice.

(3) Where a ship's registration is terminated under sub-regulation (2) the Registrar of Ships shall issue a closure transcript and the owner of the ship shall forthwith surrender its certificate of registry.

Fees 93. Where a fee is prescribed in respect of any service or other transaction to be carried out pursuant to these Regulations, the Registrar of Ships shall not be required to carry out the service or other transaction unless the appropriate fee has been paid.

Duplicate certificate 94.-(1) Where it is shown to the satisfaction of the Registrar of Ships that the certificate of registry has been lost, stolen or destroyed or has become defaced or illegible after the event, he may issue to the owner a duplicate of that certificate, which shall be marked as such, and shall be of the same effect as the original.

(2) Where a duplicate certificate of registry is issued, the original if then available or if subsequently found or recovered shall be forthwith surrendered to the Registrar of Ships.

(3) Where-

- (a) the port where the ship is at the time of the event, or as the case may be, where it first arrives after the event, is not in the United Republic of Tanzania; and
- (b) the master of the ship or some other person having knowledge of the facts of the case makes a declaration before the proper officer as to the loss, theft, destruction, defacement or illegibility of the certificate;

the proper officer shall notify the Registrar of Ships.

(4) On being notified of the event and being satisfied that the ship is entitled to be issued with a duplicate certificate the Registrar of Ships shall send by facsimile or any other form of electronic transmission to the proper officer a copy of the duplicate certificate which the proper officer shall endorse with a statement of the circumstances, under which it is granted.

(5) The facsimile or other electronically transmitted version of the duplicate certificate, temporary certificate as the case may be, shall be surrendered to the Registrar of Ships as soon as the original duplicate certificate referred to in subregulations (1) is received by the owner.

Regulations

GN. No. 198 (contd.)

(b) for which no such measurement has been undertaken and registered, until such re-measurement takes place and where necessary the certificate of survey has been lodged with the Registrar of Ships for amendment of the Register.

(2) The provisions of sub-regulation (1) above does not apply where the transfer, or change of details, arises by reason of the death of an owner of a ship, or a share in a ship.

PART XII
OFFENCES

Offences
and

100.-(1) Any person who, with intent to deceive, uses or lends or allows to be used by another, a certificate of registry whether in force or not, commits an offence and is liable upon conviction to a fine of not less than the equivalent in Tanzanian shillings of the United States dollars twenty thousand or imprisonment to a term not exceeding five years or to both.

(2) It shall be an offence on the part of the owner or master of a registered ship if any of the marks required by these Regulations to be marked on a ship is defaced, altered, allowed to become illegible, covered or concealed and is liable upon conviction to a fine of not less than the equivalent in Tanzanian shillings of the United States dollars five thousand or imprisonment to a term not less than six months or to both.

(3) It shall be a defence for a person charged with an offence under sub-regulation (2) of this Regulation to prove:

- (a) that he took all reasonable precautions and exercised all due diligence to avoid the commission of the offence; or
- (b) that the effacing, alteration, covering or concealing of the marking was for the purpose of escaping capture by an enemy.

(4) Any person who fails, without reasonable cause to surrender a certificate of registry when required to do so by Regulation 94, 95 or 96 commits an offence and is liable upon conviction to a fine of not less than the equivalent in Tanzanian shillings of the United States dollars one thousand or imprisonment to a term not exceeding six months or to both.

(5) Any person who in connection with the registration of a ship knowingly or recklessly furnishes information which is false in a material particular shall be guilty of an offence and is liable upon conviction to a fine of not less than the equivalent in Tanzanian shillings of the United States dollars one thousand or imprisonment to a term not exceeding six months or to both.

(6) Any person who intentionally alters, suppresses, conceals or destroys a document which he has been required by these Regulations to produce to the Registrar of Ships shall be guilty of an offence and is liable upon conviction to a fine of not less than the equivalent in Tanzanian shillings of the United States dollars one thousand or imprisonment to a term of not exceeding six months or to both.

(7) The offences specified in Regulations 40 and 71 shall be punishable upon conviction to a fine of not less than the equivalent in Tanzanian shillings of the United States dollars one thousand or imprisonment to a term not exceeding six months or to both.

(8) The offence specified in Regulation 59 shall be punishable upon conviction to a fine of not less than the equivalent in Tanzanian shillings of the United States Dollars one thousand or imprisonment to a term not exceeding six months or to both.

PART XIII TRANSITION PROVISIONS

101. For the purposes of this Part-

“new certificate” means a certificate of registry issued in accordance with these Regulations;

“old certificate” means any certificate of registry, other than a provisional certificate, issued under the Merchant Shipping Act 1967;

“transitional period” in relation to a ship means the period

tes

103. Notwithstanding Regulation 102, an old certificate shall remain in force beyond the transitional period if-

- (a) an application to renew the certificate has been correctly made in accordance with Regulation 33; and

Merchant Shipping (Registration of Ships and Licensing of Vessels)
Regulations

G.N. No. 198 (contd.)

(b) the Registrar has not issued a new certificate by the date of expiry of the transitional period; but any new certificate shall commence at that date.

104. The Fourth and the Fifth Schedules shall not apply to any ship until a new certificate of registry is issued in respect of that ship.

Register of information

105.-(1) Notwithstanding Regulations 42 and 46 any certificate of registry of a ship, other than a fishing vessel, which:-

Issue of new certificates of registry

(a) is issued during the transitional period;

(b) replaces an old certificate of registry, shall be valid for a period of five years from the date of issue.

(2) Any duplicate certificate issued to a ship under Regulation 94 during the transitional period shall be a certificate issued in accordance with these Regulations and shall be valid for a period of five years from the date of issue.

(3) The Registrar of Ships may, subject to (b) below, during the transitional period, at his discretion replace a ship's old certificate with a new certificate of registry which shall be valid for a period of five years from the date of issue.

(4) Any such new certificate issued in respect of a fishing vessel shall expire on the date that the old certificate would have expired.

106.-(1) Notwithstanding Regulation 32 no renewal notice shall be issued by the Registrar of Ships when old certificates of registry are due to expire at the end of the transitional period under Regulation 102(b).

Advertisement rather than renewal notice

(2) At least 4 months before the expiry of each date mentioned in column 2 in the table in Regulation 102 or, in the case of the first entry, as soon as practicable after the coming into force of these Regulations, the Registrar of Ships shall publicise that:

*Merchant Shipping (Registration of Ships and Licensing of Vessels)
Regulations*

G.N. No. 198 (contd.)

- (a) all certificates of registry will expire on the specified date for ships of that year of build; and
- (b) application for renewal must be made in accordance with Regulations 32 and 33.

Applications for registration made before commencement of these Regulations

107.-(1) Subject to sub-regulation (2) any application for registration of a ship which is made, but not completed, prior to the commencement of these Regulations shall be completed in accordance with these Regulations.

(2) Where:-

- (a) an application for registration of a ship is made, but not completed, prior to the commencement of these Regulations; and
- (b) the operation of sub-regulation (1) would render the ship ineligible for registration;

then the application shall be determined in accordance with the relevant legislation under which the application was made.

(3) An application shall be deemed to have been made when a properly completed application, accompanied by the proper fee, is received by a registrar of ships of Tanzanian ships in a port of registration.

(4) Where, for any reason the fee is not a proper and a valid fee, or where the cheque used to pay a fee is returned by the bank on which it is drawn, then the application shall not be deemed to have been made.

(5) Any certificate of registry which is issued in accordance with this Regulation shall be valid for a period of five years and shall contain the information contained in the Fifth Schedule.

PART XIV
SUPPLEMENTARY

108. Any reference in any Act other than the Act or in any other instrument made under any such other Act to the port of registration of the ship or the port to which the ship belongs shall be construed as a reference to the port of choice required to be marked by Regulations 22, 44, 46 or 66.

FIRST SCHEDULE

Regulations 26, 48, 68 and 74

APPROVAL OF NAMES

1. Every application to the Registrar of Ships to approve a name shall specify a name which is in Roman letters; any numerals shall be in Roman or European numerals.
2. In respect of an application to register a ship, other than a fishing vessel, the Registrar of Ships shall not approve the proposed name if it is:
 - (a) already the name of a registered Tanzanian ship; or
 - (b) a name so similar to that of a registered Tanzanian ship as to be calculated to deceive or likely to confuse;
 - (c) a name which may be confused with a distress signal;
 - (d) a name which is prefixed by any letters or name which could be taken to indicate a type of ship or any other word, pre-fix or suffix which might cause confusion as to the name of the ship.
3. In respect of an application to register a fishing vessel, the Registrar of Ships shall not approve the proposed name if it is:
 - (a) already the name of a vessel in its port of choice; or
 - (b) a name so similar to that of a registered Tanzanian fishing vessel in its port of choice as to be calculated to deceive or likely to confuse;
 - (c) a name which may be confused with a distress signal;
 - (d) a name which is prefixed by any letters or name which could be taken to indicate a type of ship or any other word, pre-fix or suffix which might cause confusion as to the name of the ship.

*Merchant Shipping (Registration of Ships and Licensing of Vessels)
Regulations*

G.N. No. 198 (contd.)

4. Subject to paragraph 5, if the Registrar of Ships is satisfied that a name does not fall within 2(a) to (d) or 3(a) to (d) he shall notify the applicant in writing that the name is approved and the ship may be registered with that name.
5. Notwithstanding that the Registrar of Ships is satisfied as to paragraph 2 or 3 he may refuse to approve a name which might cause offence or embarrassment.
6. Any approval given under paragraph 2 or 3 shall be valid only for the period of 3 months beginning with the date it is notified to the applicant.
7. If the Registrar of Ships is not so satisfied he shall notify the applicant accordingly.
8. Notwithstanding paragraph 6, the Registrar of Ships may allow the reservation of a ship's name or designation for a period of 10 years if he is satisfied that:
 - (a) the ship is intended to replace another of the same name which is to be registered within 10 years of the date of the application;
 - (b) the applicant is the owner of a registered ship with the same name as that which is to be reserved and its Tanzanian registration will be closed before the registration of the new vessel, or
 - (c) the applicant is the owner of a registered ship with the same name as that which is to be reserved and it will be sold before the registration of the new vessel on condition that it changes its name and that its name is so changed.
9. Applications for a reservation under paragraph 8 must be accompanied by a full statement of the circumstances of the case.
10. Where a ship having once been registered has ceased to be registered, no person (unless ignorant of the previous registration), (proof whereof will lie on him) shall apply for registration of the ship other than by the name by which it was previously registered except with the written permission of the Registrar of Ships.

THIRD SCHEDULE

Regulations 23, 25, 45 and 72

CARVING AND MARKING

1. Every ship is required, before it may be registered, to be marked permanently and conspicuously to the satisfaction of the Registrar of Ships in accordance with this Schedule.

2. The Minister may exempt any class of ship from all or any of the requirements of this Schedule, subject to such conditions, if any, as he thinks fit.

3. Subject to any exemption in respect of that class of ship, a ship other than:

- (a) a fishing vessel;
- (b) a pleasure vessel which is under 24 metres;

is to be marked as follows:

- (i) its name shall be marked on each of its bows, and its name and its port of choice must be marked on its stern;
- (ii) the marking is to be on a dark ground in white or yellow letters, or on a light ground in black letters, the letters

Regulations

G.N. No. 198 (contd.)

- being not less than 10 centimetres high and of proportional breadth; and
- (iii) its official number and the number denoting its registered tonnage shall be cut on its main beam or if that is not possible, marked or fixed thereon in the manner prescribed in paragraph 4(a).

4. A vessel which is under 24 metres in length is to be marked as follows:

- (a) the official number and registered tonnage are:
- (i) to be marked on the main beam or, if there is no main beam, on a readily accessible visible permanent part of the structure of the pleasure vessel either by cutting in, centre punching or raised lettering; or
- (ii) to be engraved on plates of metal, wood or plastic, secured to the main beam (or, if there is no main beam, to a readily accessible visible permanent part of the structure) with rivets, through bolts with the ends clenched, or screws with the slots removed;
- (b) the name and port of choice [unless an exempted ship], are to be marked on a conspicuous and permanent part of the stern on a dark ground in white or yellow letters, or on a light ground in black letters, the letters being not less than 5 centimetres high and of proportionate breadth, or, where this is not possible by the alternative methods given below:
- (i) by engraving on plates of metal or of plastic or by cutting in on a shaped wooden chock. Where a shaped wooden chock is used it should be secured to the hull through bolts, the ends being clenched; or
- (ii) by individual glass reinforced plastic letters and numbers approximately 2mm in thickness. These to be fixed to the hull with epoxy adhesive, and painted with suitable paint and coated with translucent epoxy resin;
- (iii) where metal or plastic plates have been used these must be fixed by the use of epoxy adhesives. Metal or plastic plates secured by adhesives should be coated with translucent epoxy resin after they have been fixed in position.

5. A fishing vessel is to be marked as follows:

- (a) the name of the vessel and the port of choice shall be painted in white on a black background or in black on a white background on the stern of the boat in letters which shall not be less than 8 centimetres in height and 1.5 centimetres in breadth; and
- (b) the identity mark (port letters and the number) of the vessel shall be painted or displayed on both sides of the bow, as

*Merchant Shipping (Registration of Ships and Licensing of Vessels)
Regulations*

G.N. No. 198 (contd.)

- high above the water as possible so as to be clearly visible from the sea and the air, in white on a black background or black on a white background;
- (c) for vessels not over 17 metres in length, the height of the identity mark shall be at least 25 centimetres with a line thickness of at least 4 centimetres;
 - (d) for vessels over 17 metres in length, the height of the identity mark shall be at least 45 centimetres with a line thickness of at least 6 centimetres;
 - (e) the identity mark shall in addition be painted or displayed on the wheel house top or some other prominent horizontal surface;
 - (f) the vessel's official number shall be carved into the main beam of the vessel or, if that is not possible, marked or fixed thereon in the manner prescribed in paragraph 4(a).
6. A scale of decimetres, or metres and decimetres, denoting a draught of water shall be marked on a ship, (other than an exempted ship), on each side of its stem and its stern post, as follows:
- (a) in figures in two-decimetre intervals, if the scale is in decimetres; and
 - (b) in figures at each metre interval and at intervening two-decimetre intervals, if the scale is in metres and decimetres;

the capital letter 'M' being placed after each metre figure; the top figure of the scale showing both the metre and (except where it marks a full metre interval) the decimetre figure; the lower line of the figures, or figures and letters (as the case may be), coinciding with the draught line denoted thereby; the figures and letters being not less than one decimetre in length and being marked by being cut in and painted white or yellow on a dark ground, or in such other way as the Minister approves.

7. The name of a ship shall be marked in Roman letters and any numerals shall be in Roman or European numerals.

SIXTH SCHEDULE

PRIVATE LAW PROVISIONS FOR REGISTERED SHIPS

General

1.-(1) Subject to any rights and powers appearing from the Registrar of Ships to be vested in any other person, the registered owner of a ship or of a share in a ship shall have power to dispose of it provided the disposal is made in accordance with this Schedule and registration Regulations.

(2) Sub-paragraph (1) does not imply that interests arising under contract or other equitable interest cannot subsist in relation to a ship or a share in a Ship; and such interests may be enforced by or against owners and mortgagees of ships in respect of their interest in the ship or share in the same manner as in respect of any other personal property.

(3) The registered owner of a ship or of a share in a ship shall have power to give effectual receipts for any money paid or advanced by way of consideration on any disposal of the ship or share.

2.-(1) Any transfer of a registered ship, or a share in such a ship, shall be effected by a bill of sale satisfying the prescribed requirements, unless the transfer will result in the ship ceasing to have a Tanzanian connection.

Transfers
of registered
ships

(2) Where any such ship or share has been transferred in accordance with sub-paragraph (1), the transferee shall not be registered as owner of the ship or share unless-

- (a) he has made the prescribed application to the Registrar of Ships; and
- (b) the Registrar of Ships is satisfied that the ship retains a Tanzanian connection and that he would not refuse to register the ship.

(3) If an application under sub-paragraph (2) is granted by the Registrar of ships shall register the bill of sale in the prescribed manner.

(4) Bills of sale shall be registered in the order in which they are produced to the Registrar of Ships for the purposes of registration.

3.-(1) Where a registered ship, or a share in a registered ship, is transmitted to any person by any lawful means other than a transfer under paragraph 2 and the ship continues to have a Tanzanian connection, that person shall not be registered as owner of the ship or share unless -

- (a) he has made the prescribed application to the Registrar of Ships; and
- (b) the Registrar of Ships is satisfied that the ship retains a Tanzanian connection and that he would not refuse to register the ship.

*Merchant Shipping (Registration of Ships and Licensing of Vessels)
Regulations*

G.N. No. 198 (contd.)

(2) If an application under sub-paragraph (1) is granted by the Registrar of Ships, the Registrar of ships shall cause the applicant's name to be registered as owner of the ship or share.

4.-(1) Where the property in a registered ship or share in a registered ship is transmitted to any person by any lawful means other than a transfer under paragraph 2, but as result the ship no longer has a Tanzanian connection, the High Court may, on application by or on behalf of that person, order a sale of the property so transmitted and direct that the proceeds of sale, after deducting the expenses of the sale, shall be paid to that person or otherwise as the court directs.

(2) The court may require any evidence in support of the application they think requisite, and may make the order on any terms and conditions they think just, or may refuse to make the order, and generally may act in the case as the justice of the case requires.

(3) Every such application must be made within the period of 28 days beginning with the date of the occurrence of the event on which the transmission has taken place, or within such further time (not exceeding one year) as the court may allow.

(4) If:

(a) such an application is not made within the time allowed by or under sub-paragraph (3); or

(b) the court refuse an order for sale;

the ship or share transmitted shall be liable to forfeiture.

5.-(1) Where any court (whether under paragraph 4 or otherwise) order the sale of any registered ship or share in a registered ship, the order of the court shall contain a declaration vesting in some named person the right to transfer the ship or share.

(2) The person so named shall be entitled to transfer the ship or share in the same manner and to the same extent as if he were the registered owner of the ship or share.

(3) The Registrar of Ships shall deal with any application relating to the transfer of the ship or share made by the person so named as if that person were the registered owner.

6.-(1) The High Court may, if they think fit (without prejudice to the exercise of any other power), on the application of any interested person, make an order prohibiting for a specified time any dealing with a registered ship or share in a registered ship.

(2) The court may make the order on any terms or conditions they think just, or may refuse to make the order, or may discharge the order when made (with or without costs) and generally may act in the case as the justice of the case requires.

(3) The order, when a copy is served on the Registrar of Ships, shall be binding on him whether or not he was made a party to the proceedings.

(3) Where a mortgage executed in accordance with sub paragraph (2) is produced to the Registrar of Ships, he shall register the mortgage in the prescribed manner.

(4) Mortgages shall be registered in the order in which they are produced to the Registrar of Ships for the purposes of registration.

9. Where two or more mortgages are registered in respect of the same ship or share, the priority of the mortgagees between themselves be determined by the order in which the mortgages were registered (and not by reference to any other matter).

Priority of registered mortgages

10.-(1) Subject to sub-paragraph (2), every registered mortgagee shall have power, if the mortgage money or any part of it is due, to sell the ship or share in respect of which he is registered, and to give effectual receipts for the purchase.

Registered mortgagee's power of sale

(2) Where two or more mortgagees are registered in respect of the same ship or share, a subsequent mortgagee shall not, except under an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, sell the ship or share without the concurrence of every prior mortgagee.

11. Where a ship or share is subject to a registered mortgage then -

Protection of registered mortgagee's

- (a) except so far as may be necessary for making the ship or share available as a security for the mortgage debt, the mortgagee shall not by reason of the mortgage be treated as owner of the ship or share; and
- (b) the mortgagor shall be treated as not having ceased to be owner of the ship or share.

12.-(1) A registered mortgage may be transferred by an instrument made in the form prescribed by or approved under these Regulations.

Transfer of registered mortgage

(2) Where any such instrument is produced to the Registrar of Ships, the Registrar of Ships shall register the transferee in the prescribed manner.

13. Where the interest of a mortgagee in a registered mortgage is transmitted to any person by any lawful means other than by a transfer under paragraph 12, the Registrar of Ships shall, on production of the prescribed evidence, cause the name of that person to be entered in the register as mortgagee of the ship or share in question.
